

Cakes and Carols 2023

St Julian's Church, Abbots Avenue St Albans AL1 2HY
Saturday 16th December starting at 3:00 pm and running until 5:30
(or maybe until we've sung everything in the book)

Cakes and Carols is not a church service, but a big singing party, with old and traditional carols, sacred and secular, accompanied by local folk musicians. We expect to be helped along by some members of the Chiltern West Gallery Quire. We'll be singing in keys low enough for everybody, and descants should be reachable by those with medium voices. Sheet music and chords will be available in advance so that we're all in the same keys, Netta Gibbs is in the process of putting all this music on a Onedrive folder, so if you're bringing an instrument or just want to have a look, please ask her for the link. E-mail Nettag@tiscali.co.uk.

There will be an area where children can play/ dance/bounce along.

Entry will be free of charge and there will be an opportunity to make a donation for the Open Door Night Shelter.
